SUNDAY 4TH JULY CHARITY SUNDAY Today St Michael's are collecting for the USPG. The USPG partners churches and communities worldwide to enliven faith, strengthen relationships, unlock potential and champion justice. Please use the WHITE envelopes and fill in the front if you can gift aid. Cheques should be made payable to 'PCC of St Michael and St Mary Lichfield'. Thank you, Brenda

CHURCH FUND-RAISING: Trevor James has donated ten copies of his book, Come Wind, Come Weather: Storm, Tempest and Other Natural Phenomena within local sources for church-fund-raising. Copies can be obtained from the Churchwardens.

THE CHILDREN'S SOCIETY Those of us from St Michael's with home boxes will already know that this year I have sent £756:18 (via Barclays as they don't charge the charity any fees). That is the best total for a few years. In a difficult year it's especially good that we donated such a terrific amount. Thanks to everyone with a home collection box. And thank you also to Sonia for being a willing helper again. Maureen Duff

LICHFIELD FESTIVAL. Brochures for the Lichfield Festival are available in both our churches for you to take away. If you are not attending church at the moment and would like one delivered, please let me know on 262342 or ctgreen@ntlworld.com. Ted Green

RAFFLE PRIZES: We are going to Camas in late August and, subject to government rules, I'm hoping to hold a Strawberry Tea and Grand Raffle in late July/early August. I'll be grateful for the offer of raffle prizes and it would help if anyone can suggest a donor for the Star Prize. Please speak to me personally or contact me on 262342 or ctgreen@ntlworld.com. Ted Green
